THE FOLLOWING AUTHORIZATION MUST BE SIGNED BY PATIENT BEFORE CLAIM CAN BE PROCESSED

Any person who knowingly, and with intent to defraud, or deceive an insurance company, who files a statement of claim containing any false, incomplete, or misleading information is guilty of insurance fraud. Insurance fraud is a felony. Please refer to the State Specific Fraud Statements at the end of this packet.

HIPAA AUTHORIZATION

I hereby authorize any health care provider or medically related facility, pharmacy or pharmacy related facility, the Medical Information Bureau, Inc., consumer reporting agency, insurance or reinsurance company or employer having information about me to provide all such information as may be requested by National Health Insurance Company, Integon National Insurance Company, Integon Indemnity Corporation or Time Insurance Company (collectively hereafter "National General"), its legal representative or any medical records retrieval service National General may engage, including but not limited to EMSI. This authorization includes any and all information you have about me, including but not limited to information regarding diagnosis, testing, treatment and prognosis of my physical or mental condition as well as alcohol abuse treatment, drug abuse treatment, psychiatric treatment, pharmacy prescriptions, HIV testing and treatment, STD testing and treatment, sickle cell testing and treatment, prescription history, lab data and EKGs. This information also may be disclosed to any medical records company engaged by National General, including but not limited to EMSI and its agents. Although federal regulations require that we inform you of the potential that information disclosed pursuant to this authorization may be subject to re-disclosure by the recipient and no longer be protected by such regulation, all information received by National General pursuant to this authorization will be protected by federal and state privacy laws and regulations. A copy of this authorization will be valid as the original. I understand that this authorization is required in order to enable National General to make payment determinations relating to me and/or my minor children. I may refuse to sign this authorization; however, National General may not be able to make a payment determination without the required information. I understand that I may revoke this authorization at any time by notifying National General in writing of my desire to revoke. Such revocation must be sent by certified mail to Privacy Office, National General at PO Box 3252, Milwaukee, WI 53201-3252. Such revocation will not be valid if National General has taken action in reliance on the authorization. Unless an earlier date is required by law, this authorization expires when I am no longer a policyholder of National General.
